Notes on Pricing

1. All pricing is subject to availability and change without notice.
2. The registration fee is payable by all people attending the 2009 Sigma Mediterranean Conference including delegates, partners and accompanying persons (i.e. children).
3. Airline taxes and surcharges are included as at 1 February 2009 and are subject to change.
4. All non-Australian based activities are based on foreign exchange rates as at 1 February 2009. All costs are subject to alteration due to fluctuations in exchange rates and any shortfalls that may arise are the sole responsibility of the participants.
5. Due to the range of airline and tour options, some itineraries may require additional flights or accommodation to be booked at the passengers own expense.
6. Flights are not always daily from all capital cities and may necessitate involuntary stopovers en route or additional flight connections. These services may result in additional charges payable by the passenger.
7. Refunds will not be made on unused accommodation or cruise portions of the package.

Travel Insurance

It is strongly recommended that attendees consider travel insurance and this should be taken out at the time of booking. Like all forms of insurance there is a wide variety of options available from various companies. Attendees should carefully consider the options and make the selection most relevant to their circumstances. Travel insurance is available from the conference booking Travel agent or your insurance agent. A Policy option will be sent to you with your confirmation. Please note it is rare that any travel insurance will cover disinclination to travel in the event of civil unrest or terrorist incidents. If you cancel for this reason, you will be liable for the full published cancellation fees as outlined on the registration form.

Special Notes

It is the responsibility of each person travelling to ensure that they have a valid and current passport with at least 6 months validity from the expected date of return to Australia. If you are travelling on passports other than Australian passports, it is your responsibility to ensure that you have a valid Australian re-entry permit. SIGMA and the operator will not accept responsibility for the currency or validity of your travel documentation.

Do you wish to make Additional Travel Arrangements?

Yes No

Extensions for people wishing to lengthen their stay or travel to other destinations are possible. You should complete the registration form and return it as normal. A consultant will then contact you to discuss your individual travel preferences. Please note that the package price will need to be recalculated based on your individual itinerary.

Cancellation Policy

- If cancellation occurs after your booking has been confirmed and prior to 1 June 2009, you will forfeit all registration fees paid.
- If cancellation occurs after 1 June and prior to 1 July 2009, you will forfeit all registration fees paid plus 25% of the total conference package and supplements.
- If cancellation occurs after 1 July and prior to 1 August 2009, you will forfeit all registration fees paid plus 50% of the total conference package and supplements.
- If cancellation occurs after 1 August 2009 and prior to departure, you will forfeit all registration fees paid plus up to 100% of the total conference package and supplements. Actual cancellation charges will vary as they are based on the amount levied by airlines, cruise ship and other suppliers at the time of cancellation.
- Refunds will not be made on any unused portions of the package.
- Any extension travel bookings made in addition to the official conference travel package will be governed by the terms and conditions of the operator supplying those services.
